All this week we will be using Talk For Writing.
Please download the booklet 'MEET THE RHI-SWANO-ZEB-TAH' by Maria Richards.
You will need to work on a section each day.
If you are in school on Thursday and Friday you will need to start working on Monday as we will be doing Thursday and Friday work in school.

Monday	I can identify words I need to understand and look up their meaning. I can use a dictionary to find words and their antonyms. I can use unfamiliar words in sentences.	Early Morning work: Watch Newsround https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/news/watch_newsround https://www.talk4writing.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/06/Y5-Maria-Rhi.pdf Reading and writing tasks: Look at the front cover of the booklet. Do you recognise the animals at the watering hole? Read the welcome page and follow the link to watch the video of Where the wild things are. Continue reading the information text pages 3 and 4. Answer question bubbles on page 5. On page 6 write down up to 8 words that you do not know the meaning of and look them up in a dictionary. You will be able to use these later. At the bottom of page 6 are some definitions. Complete Page 7 and think of the antonym of each word. Look at page 8 Fill in the gaps to show you have understood the meaning of the words and review your learning.
Tuesday	I can demonstrate a good understanding of a nonfiction text. I can explain how to use brackets and use them in my writing	Early Morning work: Watch Newsround https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/news/watch_newsround https://www.talk4writing.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/06/Y5-Maria-Rhi.pdf Reading and writing tasks: Re-read the information text pages 3 and 4 The Rhiswanozebta. Answer questions on page 9, 10, 11. Answer questions fully using the correct punctuation and full sentences. https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/articles/zkfvgrwx look at BBC bite size to understand where and when to use brackets. Continue complete p12 7 13.
Wednesday	I know how to use	Early Morning work: Watch Newsround https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/news/watch_newsround

		fronted adverbials and recognise the impact they have in my writing. I can use add-ons to expand sentences and engage the reader.	https://www.talk4writing.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/06/Y5-Maria-Rhi.pdf Reading and writing tasks: Re-read the information text pages 3 and 4 The Rhiswanozebta. Look at P13 'Let's do some sentence limitation.' What one word sentence starters are used to engage the reader? p14 asks you to think of more amazing facts that you can write about. How about additional facts? Complete the additional information on page 15.
	Thursday	I can write a detailed nonfiction text clearly and precisely. I can write accurate sentences using the correct punctuation.	Early Morning work: Watch Newsround https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/news/watch_newsround https://www.talk4writing.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/06/Y5-Maria-Rhi.pdf Reading and writing tasks: Re-read the information text pages 3 and 4 The Rhiswanozebta. Look at p 16 'Write away'. You will be writing information sentences about your chosen topic. Invent some facts about the subject and try to be clear and detailed. You need to engage the reader so that they want to read on. Complete p 16 & 17. Look at P18 'Your Turn'. You will need to talk about the picture of the blue headed iguana. Describe its colour, size, texture. How does it move? Does it change as it ages? Are there any facts that you could include to make it strange and special? Write your own paragraph on the blue headed iguana.
	Friday	I can write accurate sentences using the correct punctuation.	Early Morning work: Watch Newsround https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/news/watch_newsround https://www.talk4writing.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/06/Y5-Maria-Rhi.pdf Reading and writing tasks: Re-read the information text pages 3 and 4 The Rhiswanozebta. Read your paragraph from yesterday to an adult or friend. What did they really like about it? What can you do to improve your writing? Now you are going to use your ideas and sentence patterns. Look at p19. 'Using ideas and sentence patterns'.... Follow the instructions to create your own writing. Illustrate your writing with a picture to show your creature in its natural setting. Perhaps it is camouflaged and hard to see. Maybe it is a predator looking for food or lying in wait for its prey.

Week 17 w.c. 13-07-20

<https://www.talk4writing.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/Y5-One-Chance.pdf>

All this week we will be using Talk For Writing.

Please download the booklet 'ONE CHANCE' by Maria Richards.

You will need to work on a section each day.

If you are in school on Thursday and Friday you will need to start working on Monday as we will be doing Thursday and Friday work in school.

Monday	I can follow a pattern in poetry and create one using my own ideas.	Early Morning work: Watch Newsround https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/news/watch_newsround https://www.talk4writing.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/Y5-One-Chance.pdf Reading and writing tasks: You will need the booklet to complete this week's task. Read p2, 3, and 4. Many traditional tales are based on wishes that frequently go wrong. 'Be careful what you wish for is the moral to this story'. Explore the 'downside' to wishes you could make. (p3&4) Read 'The Mirror of Wishes' and 'The Mirror of Despair'. (p5&6). Use this pattern to create your own poems.
Tuesday	I can make a prediction based on the evidence so far. I can use a dictionary to find the meaning of words.	Early Morning work: Watch Newsround https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/news/watch_newsround https://www.talk4writing.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/Y5-One-Chance.pdf Reading and writing tasks: On p7 you can read or listen to 'One Chance' https://soundcloud.com/talkforwriting/one-chance/s-A3SQppltbOx You will need to stop on p8 to make a prediction. Continue your reading P 10 asks you to find out the meaning of some words from the text. Use dictionary to complete the task. Complete the grid on pages 10 & 11.
Wednesday	I can use a dictionary to find antonyms and synonyms. I can use strong words in my writing.	Early Morning work: Watch Newsround https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/news/watch_newsround https://www.talk4writing.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/Y5-One-Chance.pdf Reading and writing tasks: Explore synonyms and antonyms and complete the table on p12. Can you place the synonyms along a line from weaker to stronger? P13 asks you to use some of these words in your own sentences.

	Thursday	I can use strong words in my writing. I can describe characters and say how the mood is created in the story.	Early Morning work: Watch Newsround https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/news/watch_newsround https://www.talk4writing.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/Y5-One-Chance.pdf Reading and writing tasks: Closer reading. P16 & 17. Explore the characters in the story. How is the mood created? P17 - 19 Complete the tasks. What powerful verbs have you used? Where are the commas used?
	Friday	I can use the correct punctuation for speech in my writing. I can plan a wish story.	Early Morning work: Watch Newsround https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/news/watch_newsround https://www.talk4writing.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/Y5-One-Chance.pdf Reading and writing tasks: P 20 & 21. Look at how speech is punctuated and used to move the story along. It also helps the reader understand each character. Remind yourself about the rules for using speech marks (sometimes called inverted commas). Complete tasks on p20&21. Look at p22&23. You can start to plan your wishing story. How might the wish be granted? Is there a warning that goes with it? Think of 2 characters with opposing views and different characters. Look at other tales: http://classictales.educ.cam.ac.uk/stories/metamorphoses/kingmidas/Midas_Part_1_transcript.pdf Now plan your own story. In the next few days at home you can enjoy writing your story and creating your own booklet as we have done previously. Enjoy your writing and keep reading. There are other ideas in Talk for Writing that you could do in the school holidays.
	Afternoon Work
French	Bonjour les enfants I hope you are all well. This week we are going to think about sport and hobbies, I am sure many of you will have enjoyed the return of football last week. Firstly watch this clip of children saying what they enjoy doing in their spare time. See if you can hear how to say some of the activities and watch a couple of times pausing the video and repeating. https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/class-clips-video/french-ks2-favourite-hobbies/z4hxpg8

Use this worksheet to help you write some sentences about different sports and activities that you take part in.
